SUPERIOR SELLING IDC STOCK OF ANTIQUITIES AND ANCIENT COINS

Half of the approximately 300 firms selling gems for investment in the U.S. during the 1980 peak are now out of business according the Jeweler's Circular. The collapse of one of the largest such companies, International Diamond Corporation, with annual sales of more than $150 million has resulted in an unexpected dividend for ancient coin and antiquity collectors.

At the peak of its prosperity, IDC decided to broaden its product line. . . and formed a subdivision, Intercontinental Antiquity Corporation (IAC), that offered genuine antiquities and ancient coins to its clients. These were mostly from ancient Israel, with some Greek, Roman and Egyptian pieces. They were purchased by descriptive certificates and color photographs.

The diamond investing bubble burst, bringing all activities of IAC to a halt, and bankruptcy was declared. Competitive proposals were submitted and Superior Stamp & Coin Co., Inc. was chosen by the court appointed trustee as the prime seller of the extensive antiquity and ancient coin stock. The inventory of more than 1,300 antiquities and about 700 ancient coins can be seen at our office.

The antiquities will be offered in this and subsequent issues of "MoneyTalks" and by our Biblical Numismatic Soceity. Prices are as low as $25.00 for a 2,000-year-old oil lamp, or a glass vial undamaged by the centuries, lain undisturbed in an ancient tomb.

The following listing is the first in a series of antiquities to be offered in "MoneyTalks." We strongly suggest that you call to reserve your selections. Outside California toll free at (800) 421-0754.; within California (213) 278-9740.

Every antiquity will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and a full color photo.

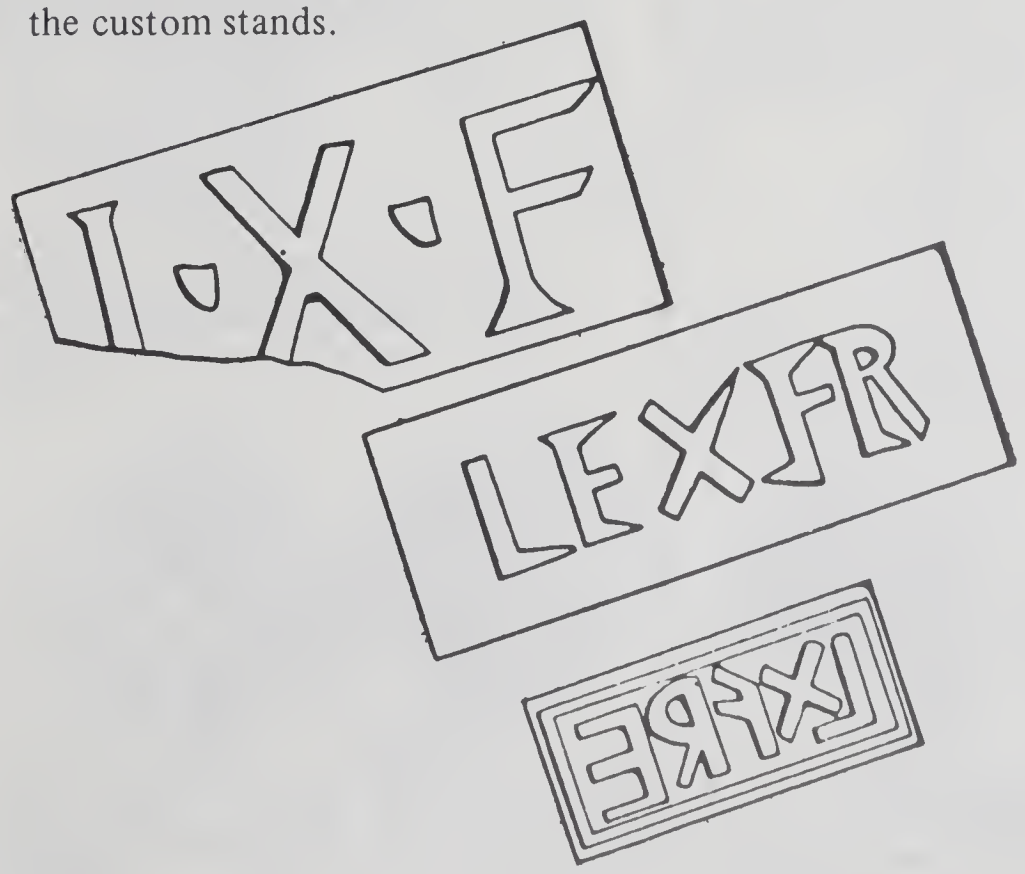
On his recent trip to Israel, Ira Goldberg heard of most unusual archaeological find. While excavating for new construction near the Jerusalem Hilton, the workers were amazed to find a roadway dating back to the time of the fall of the great Jewish Temple. This ancient walkway, where Jewish Revolutionary leader Simon Bar Kochba or Jesus' Apostles could have strolled was identified in several places with impressions ("LXFR" or variations) of the Roman Tenth Legion which was garrisoned there from the First to Third Centuries.

Through a most fortunate set of circumstances, when the Israel Museum deacquisitioned some of the roadway fragments stamped with the name of the Tenth Legion, Ira was able to purchase them. Even more fortunately, for the first time as far as we know, the Israel Government allowed these historic remnants to be legally exported. We are now most pleased to offer them for sale exclusively to clients of Superior Stamp and Coin Company and members of the Biblical Numismatic Society.

We only have 28 pieces and they will be sold on a strict first come - first served basis. The price is a moderate $225.00 per stamped fragment. If you want a custom made lucite stand we will bill you an additional $75.00 (which is our cost). Please allow 4 - 6 weeks delivery for the custom stands.



BACKGROUND - "LEGIO DECIMA FRETENSIS"

Julius Caesar's famous Tenth Legion derived its name "Fretensis" from Fretum Siculum, where it excelled in the naval battle between Agrippa and Sextus Pompeius im 36 BC. It was part of the forces, under the leadership of Titus, which destroyed Jerusalem in 70 AD, and beseiged Masada three years later. Following the defeat of the first Judaean revolt, the Tenth Legion was stationed permanently in Jerusalem, and continued through the period after the Bar Kochba Revolt (132 - 135 AD).

In his study of the Roman Tenth Legion, Dan Barag concludes that the stamped bricks, such as we are offering along with the counterstamped coins, are two of the "principle sources for the history of the Legio Decima Fretensis."

FORMS OF THE BRICK STAMPS

Various forms of the Tenth Legion's name were used on their bricks. Abbreviations were common, and sometimes the inscriptions are retrograde (backwards), presumably in error. Each Tenth Legion stamped brick fragment is different, ranging in size from a few inches to nearly a foot in length. What they all have in common is their great historical significance. This is a unique opportunity that we confidently feel will never be duplicated once these pieces are sold!

BABE RUTH

50 First Day Covers

The design of the 20 Cent Babe Ruth commemorative was unveiled Feb. 6 in Baltimore, Maryland. It will be issued July 6 in Chicago, Illinois, in conjunction with the All-Star Game.

INDONESIA

From the KING FAROUK Collection with Stolow Certificate from 1951, H.M. King Farouk Auction, Lot 104. Two small essay sheets, from a set of rejected designs for 1949. Probably only two or three of each exist. Rare and Very Fine.

Pair. $125.00

When the Baseball Hall of Fame opened in Cooperstown, N.Y., George Herman (Babe) Ruth was one of the five players originally voted by sports writers to be members. Now a new stamp will be issued July 6, 1983, to honor him.

Because of the baseball fan's enthusiasm for the new stamp, a spectacular set of 50 different First Day covers, with full-color "silk" cachets, is being issued to honor Babe Ruth.

Last Chance to Order!

The 50 different color cachets picture highlights of Ruth's 22-year career with the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees. Fewer than 500 sets of these covers will be issued. . . and we expect that most of them will be sold well before the new stamp is issued!

DON'T MISS this opportunity. . . This is a cover collection to be treasured and handed down to your children. When Babe Ruth was traded to the Yankees by the Red Sox, it was baseball's biggest deal. . . and it launched a new era in American baseball that will never be forgotten.

Every cover in this collection will have a July 6 Chicago First Day cancellation (the date of the All-Star game) on the Babe Ruth stamp. The complete collection. . . including a luxurious padded ring binder with special pages to hold the cover collection. . . is only $79.95 postpaid.

APPROXIMATE DELIVERY DATE: AUGUST 15TH, 1983

Babe Ruth hit a record 29 home runs as a Red Sox player and went on to set a lifetime record of 714 home runs, which stood until 1974.

Some of the highlights shown on the covers include Babe Ruth at bat, pitching for the Boston Red Sox and for the Yankees, campaigning for Al Smith for president, and the "last game" retirement ceremony. One shows him playing shortstop at age 16, another signing with the Baltimore Orioles in 1914. Full-color silk covers are by John Zaso.

Superior Endorses Fellow Coin Dealer for ANA Board of Governors

Unusual as it may appear but nevertheless we just can't speak too highly about our good friend Robert "Bob" Medlar. Bob is a candidate for seat no. 1 of the American Numismatic Association Board of Govenors. During the many years that we have known Bob, we have shared many thoughts consistent with the high integrity of our profession and your hobby of numismatics. Your support for Bob Medlar is a vote in the right direction and for the future of numismatics.

This commemorative silver dollar struck in 1964 commemorates Charlottetown Quebec. Our price is determined by the standard silver content valuation and not based on any numismatic value. Quantity available is about 200 pieces. So don't hesitate.

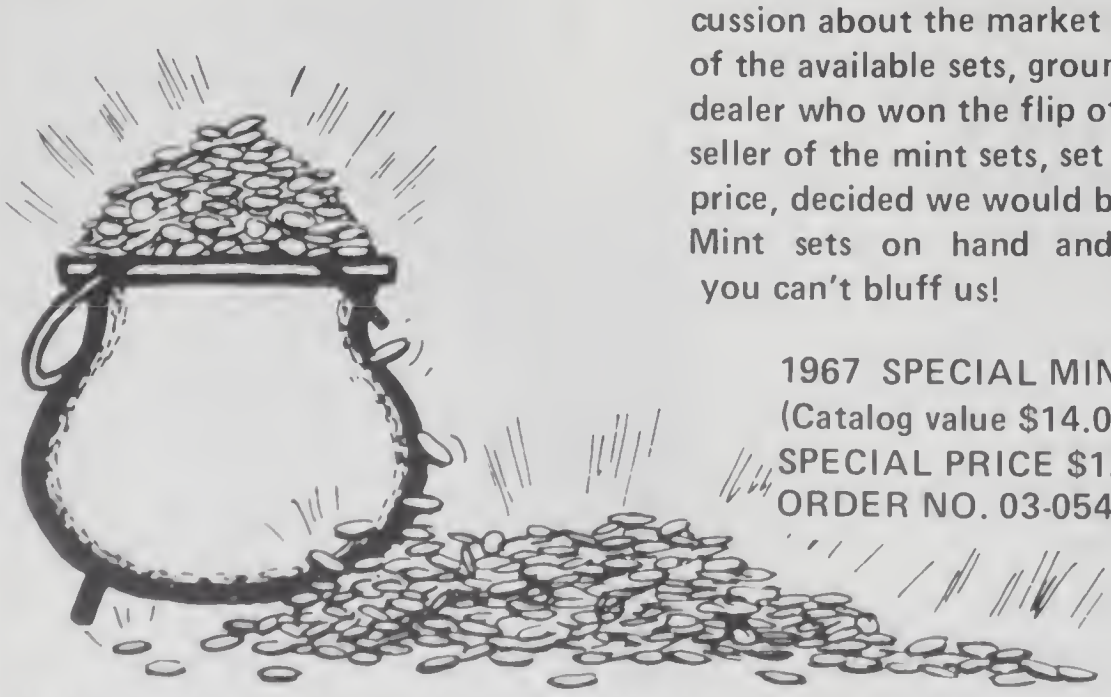
Giant Hoard of 1967 Special Mint Sets

Landed by Flip of the coin



Recently in Dearborn, Michigan representatives from Superior and another large dealer discussed each firms holdings in 1967 Special Mint Sets. After much discussion about the market potential and attempts by each other to obtain all of the available sets, ground rules were carefully laid out, at which time, the dealer who won the flip of a coin would announce who would be the buyer and seller of the mint sets, set the price. Well, we won the flip and after seeing the price, decided we would buy all of the sets. Now, we have about 500 1967 Special Mint sets on hand and here we go at special super prices. Order several, you can't bluff us!

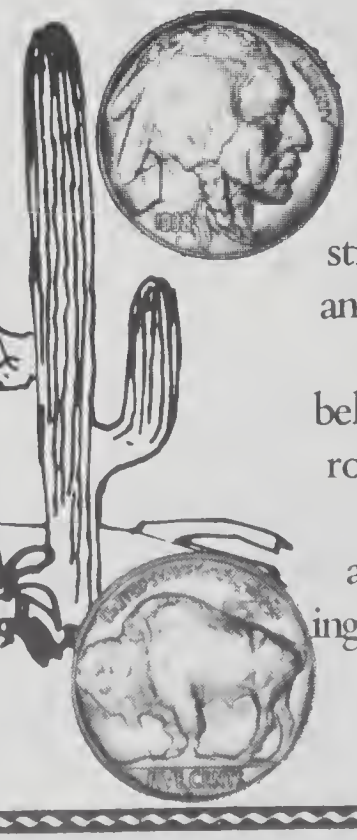
Gem BU 1938-D Buffalo Nickels



We found a small hoard of original choice MS65 Buffalo Nickels. These 1938-D Nickels were struck at the Denver Mint and are so choice and well struck that it is hard to believe. We have just a few rolls available from which we chose only the best available. Incredible toning further highlights these beauties.

$35.00 each.

A WORD OF CAUTION

As a service to our readers and valued customers, we would like to take a moment and call attention to an area of concern which we believe is important to all of us. During the past several months we have noticed a fairly large number of high grade coins which have been artificially toned or colored. This toning appears to be very pleasing and lately a trend has developed where collectors have been anxious to obtain this type of material. We call this to your attention in hopes that you will pay attention to toned numismatic material and respect the necessity to carefully examine any material offered.

We at Superior will make every attempt possible to point out this type of material when and if it is offered by us. We recently received a large number of coins for sale and found that many of these were artifically toned and the toning actually hid many of the problems which the coins possessed. Feel free to request additional information on this or other problems you may encounter. We have observed a reluctance upon the part of the various organizations to react to this situation and feel a responsibility to bring this to light.

Mint State 1923-P Silver Dollars

We have a limited number of lovely 1922 and 1923 Peace type Silver Dollars which grade from MS60 to 63. As silver climbs past the $15.00 spot price, we believe a dramatic increase in the actual value of these coins should be seen, especially since there is a possibility that the market will react by pushing the price to the $50.00 range. This is especially possible since when we compare the current value of the more popular Morgan Dollars we see that it is possible that these should also react.

Special price while they last.
$27.50 each.

THE FIRST "P" MINT NICKEL

Interesting fact about the 1942 Philadelphia Nickel is that it is the first time the "P" mintmark appears on a U.S. Coin. Its designation was to specify a change in alloy. We have broken up a few rolls of these and offer the MS65 specimens with full original lustre at just $12.50 each. Order a few and watch these move.

ORIGINAL CONFEDERATE STATES BONDS

Here is an opportunity to acquire these unusual Confederate States Bonds issued back in 1871 to help finance the fight against the Union. What a bad investment back in those days but today we believe there is more promise. We have four different bonds available as illustrated at super prices. These are great for framing purposes and quite frankly we have not seen any offered in many months. Act promptly as our supply is very limited.

DENVER MINT STRIKES NEW DESIGN OF NICKEL

This headline would have been appropriate in 1938 when the Denver Mint struck both the Buffalo or Indian design and the new Jefferson head design. We have obtained a small number of lovely 1938-D Jefferson Nickels, which are strictly graded MS65. Act promptly as we only have a few rolls from which we offer individual pieces. Each has been picked to insure its grade.

1938-D Jefferson Nickel MS65

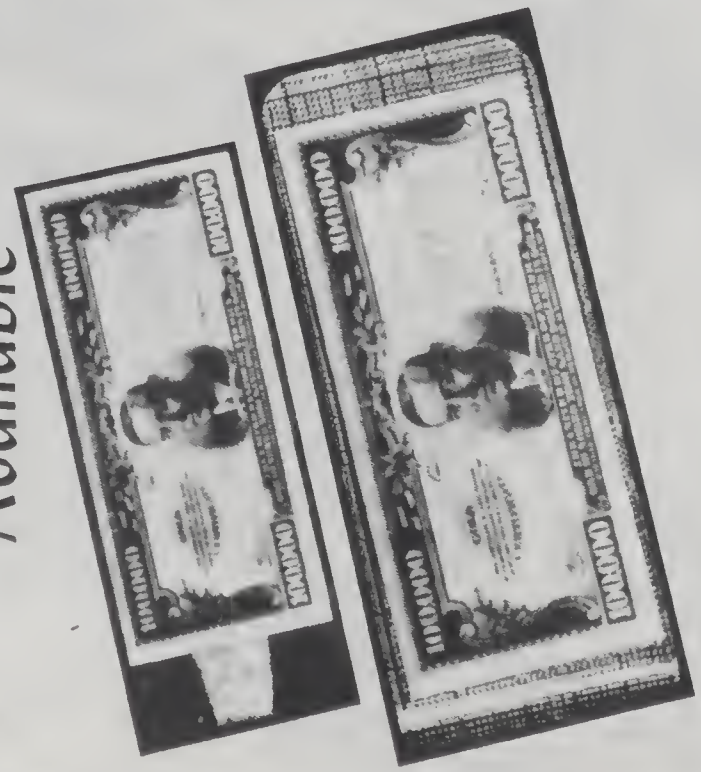
Finally After Twelve Years $100,000.00 Currency Available



Approximately 12 years ago Superior introduced a novel item known as our $10,000.00 Tie Clip. Well after selling literally thousands of these the Secret Service which is a leg of the Treasury Department closed the door on the sale of these reduced yet identical reproductions of large denomination U.S. currency.

We have them available in stock for immediate delivery. Recently we learned the sale of these novel items is permissible.

Best of all is the price which closely parallels our price from 12 years ago. Also available is a $100,000.00 Money Clip. Order several now for the upcoming holidays as there is no telling what our government might do once these are offered in the press.
